A Happy Wedding.

On Tuesday, December 25, 1894, Miss Fannie Wilson and Mr. Entia Still, both of White Hall, were happily married.

Long before the appointed hour a host of friends gathered at the hospitable home of the bride's father to witness the happy event. At one o'clock the lovely bride entered the parlor by the tollowing attendants:

Mr. John Wilson and Miss Beauford Still.

Mr. Pierce Lowry and Miss Minnie Wilson. The ceremony was beautifully performed by Rev. Mr. Watson, of Greenwood.

They received many valuable presents. Our best wishes attend the happy comple to their finture home. May God's richest blessings rest upon them.

H. P. McGee's store at Donalds, and E. H. Bunker's store at the same place, were broken open on last Saturday night, and considerable amount of goods were stolen. The same night the stable of Mrs. Nancy Richey was broken and a mule taken. The mule was recovered in the lower edge of Adderson county, but none of the goods have been found. We are indebted to Mr. L. A. Shannon for these facts.

MR. FAULKNER, who has been with Mr. attmer's sash, door and blind factory will enceforth be in the factory of which Mr. J. Allen Smith is president. Mr. DAVID AIKEN, President of the Far-mer's Mutual Fire Insurance Association was in town last Monday. He makes a splendid

Mr. Editor, we see that some of the public journals are agitated over the "big bogs" of South Carolina. Mr. Land, of Oconee, Mr. Williams, of Edgefield, have made spiendid specimens, and are entitled to credit. We do dot discredit the report of either. A pound and a half and two pounds per day can be put on hogs if properly fed. Mr. Maicolin Erwin, one of the best men who ever lived in Abbeville, raised a hog several years back to an enormous size. He showed him at the Abbeville Fair, and he was weighed, if we remember right, by a committee, probably for two different years. Won't some one who knows tell what Mr. Erwin hog weighed?
